

B1-AD02

Complete the following sentences using the adjective+preposition phrases from the box !

polite to	keen on	kind of	satisfied with	good at tired of	annoyed with	interested in	surprised at	worried about typical of	wrong with	afraid of	disappointed with	different from

1. My home town looks very _____ what it did 25 years ago.
2. I'd rather not walk home alone. You see, I'm _____ the dark.
3. Joe is very _____ his new computer. This is the second time it broke down.
4. Don't ask me to play squash. I'm no _____ ball games.
5. I'm a bit _____ Susan . She's been looking quite depressed lately.
6. When I told him that I'd scratched his car, I thought he was going to get really _____ me.
7. I wouldn't say that Robert is just _____ football. I'd say he was football mad.
8. Haven't you got any other CDs? I'm _____ listening to this kind of music.
9. My driving instructor said that she isn't _____ my progress and that I'll have to practice a lot more if I want to pass the test.
10. Ruth is _____ a career in tourism when she leaves school.
11. Thank you . It was very _____ you to drive me all the way home.
12. A shop assistant always has to be _____ the customers - even when they are rude to her.
13. So, John has forgotten our anniversary again ! - That's absolutely _____ him.
14. What's _____ the car this morning ? Why won't it start ?
15. It was only a cheap restaurant, but we were _____ how good the food was.

KEY

1. My home town looks very different from what it did 25 years ago.
2. I'd rather not walk home alone. You see, I'm afraid of the dark.
3. Joe is very disappointed with his new computer. This is the second time it broke down.
4. Don't ask me to play squash. I'm no good at ball games.
5. I'm a bit worried about Susan . She's been looking quite depressed lately.
6. When I told him that I'd scratched his car, I thought he was going to get really annoyed with me.
7. I wouldn't say that Robert is just keen on football. I'd say he was football mad.
8. Haven't you got any other CDs? I'm tired of listening to this kind of music.
9. My driving instructor said that she isn't satisfied with my progress and that I'll have to practice a lot more if I want to pass the test.
10. Ruth is interested in a career in tourism when she leaves school.
11. Thank you . It was very kind of you to drive me all the way home.
12. A shop assistant always has to be polite to the customers – even when they are rude to her.
13. So, John has forgotten our anniversary again ! – That's absolutely typical of him.
14. What's wrong with the car this morning ? Why won't it start ?
15. It was only a cheap restaurant, but we were surprised at how good the food was.