

In a school project, you are given the following leaflet.

Write an email (about 150 - 200 words) to Young Future in which you show your interest in taking part. Your email should include

- personal details and your interests.
- reasons why you think you are the right candidate for Young Future.
- your questions about the project and what your duties are

Young Future is an international exchange programme that gives young people the chance to work together in places where they are needed. This year, we are offering 40 young people the opportunity to help in local projects in Central America.
