

Fill in each space in the following sentences with an appropriate compound adjective formed for a word in the list.

aged - behaved - blooded - class - cold - conditioned - distance - free - going - headed - known - made - maintained - off - page - sighted - speaking - time - up (2x)

1. I made a long- _____ call to England, and it cost me a fortune.
2. I bought this CD duty- _____ as I was coming back to England.
3. They seem to be very well- _____ - at least they have a great big house and two expensive cars.
4. I'm fed- _____ with this exercise. Can't we do something else?
5. On the train, I travelled second- _____ because it's cheaper.
6. You can see this vase is hand- _____ and wasn't produced in a factory.
7. He's a relaxed guy - so easy- _____ .
8. I live in a built- _____ area of the city which is very noisy and full of traffic.
9. The office is air- _____ so it's very cool even in the summer.
10. Primates are warm- _____ creatures that always have the same body temperature.
11. The Spanish- _____ population of the state will decide the outcome of the election.
12. The attorney gave us a three- _____ document to read.
13. Janet was a first- _____ participant in the competition, so she really had no experience.
14. He's so proud - I've rarely met anyone so big- _____ . He has a really high opinion of himself.
15. I want to get my eyes tested. I've become really short- _____ lately.
16. A badly- _____ car won't have a reliable engine.
17. They proved to be well- _____ boys because their mother didn't scold them once.
18. Dad went to the kitchen and got himself an ice- _____ beer from the refrigerator.
19. She was a well- _____ actress who always craved publicity.
20. The middle- _____ woman looked around and spotted a suspicious man behind the fence.

KEY

1. I made a long-distance call to England, and it cost me a fortune.
2. I bought this CD duty-free as I was coming back to England.
3. They seem to be very well-off - at least they have a great big house and two expensive cars.
4. I'm fed-up with this exercise. Can't we do something else?
5. On the train, I travelled second-class because it's cheaper.
6. You can see this vase is hand-made and wasn't produced in a factory.
7. He's a relaxed guy - so easy-going .
8. I live in a built-up area of the city which is very noisy and full of traffic.
9. The office is air-conditioned so it's very cool even in the summer.
10. Primates are warm-blooded creatures that always have the same body temperature.
11. The Spanish-speaking population of the state will decide the outcome of the election.
12. The attorney gave us a three-page document to read.
13. Janet was a first-time participant in the competition, so she really had no experience.
14. He's so proud - I've rarely met anyone so big-headed . He has a really high opinion of himself.
15. I want to get my eyes tested. I've become really short-sighted lately.
16. A badly- maintained car won't have a reliable engine.
17. They proved to be well-behaved boys because their mother didn't scold them once.
18. Dad went to the kitchen and got himself an ice-cold beer from the refrigerator.
19. She was a well-known actress who always craved publicity.
20. The middle-aged woman looked around and spotted a suspicious man behind the fence.